Learning Paths

The screenshot shows a LinkedIn Learning path interface. At the top, the LinkedIn logo is on the left, and navigation links 'What is LinkedIn?', 'Join Today', and 'Sign In' are on the right. The main heading is 'Become A Graphic Designer' with a 'LEARNING PATH' sub-label. Below this, there are three circular icons representing a folder (Courses), an envelope (Projects), and a clock (Average Time To Complete). The statistics are: 9 Courses, 2 Projects, and 35hrs Average Time To Complete. A central image shows a person working at a desk. To the right, three instructor profiles are shown: Ryan Rosiansky, Tanya Staples, and Chris Stone. Below the profiles, it states '67 People have completed this path' and '50 People started a new career in graphic design after completing this path.' At the bottom, a blue bar highlights the current course 'Introduction to Graphic Design' with a duration of '5-6hr'. Below this bar, the next course 'Getting Started in Graphic Design' is listed with a duration of '2h 7m' and a folder icon.
